

Word Building 1

How many three letter words can you build using the letters on the cat? They must all have the letter a in the middle position, as in the word c-a-t. Use each letter only once, and cross them out as you use them.

There is at least one way that you can use all the letters up and make twenty different words.

